I-75 to exits (any of) 81, 80, 83 or 79. Exit 83 is the quickest, but no matter which exit you take there are signs directing you to the venue. You can park on the paved grounds as well as tailgate before the show. Security (in the past) has not minded patrons drinking in the lot as long as you keep it in plastic cups. Also, keep in mind that there are metal detectors at all entries.

Montreal

Oct 4 w/ Supergrass

Molson Centre
1250 de la Gauchetiere St/
Montreal Quebec

(514) 989-2841 / 22.000 / indoor
If you're crossing the border from the US, be sure to allow extra driving time in order to go through Canadian Customs & Immigration. If you tell them you are going to see PJ (and they will probably know about the show), be prepared for anything from a cursory search to being pulled over and having your car torn apart. And needless to say, DON'T bring anything across the border you shouldn't. The beauty of the Molson Centre is that it's gotta be the steepest arena in North America -- meaning you're never far from the action. There is not a bad seat in the place. It is also an extremely loud venue. Molson Centre sits at the corner of Saint-Antoine and de la Montagne downtown.

Toronto

Air Canada Centre
40 Bay St, Suite 400/Toronto Ontario

19,800 / indoor
Air Canada Centre is located in the heart of the downtown core, nestled between Union Station and the Gardiner Expressway. From airport: take Hwy 427 S to Queen Elizabeth Way (QEW) East (Toronto). QEW turns into Gardiner Expressway. Exit at York Ave. N and continue one block to the arena. From the E: take Hwy. 401 W to Don Valley Parkway S to Gardiner Expressway to Yonge St exit. Go W on Lakeshore to York St. From the W: take the QEW E to Gardiner Expressway to York St N. Parking around the venue will be full hours before the game starts if there is a sporting event. Many lots are in the blocks surrounding the skydome and ACC. A 5-minute walk can save you $10-15. You can also park in a suburban mall and take the TTC (subway). Take the Yonge St. (the yellow line on the map; it runs N & S on TTC) to Union Station. A tunnel joins Union Station to ACC. Union is a good place to absorb the pre-show atmosphere. If you see that you are on a green line, you can change directions at Bloor, Spadina or St. George. If you are on the blue line, then you'll probably miss the concert! OR take the subway from "Yorkdale." I's on the University line, there's lots of parking (it's a mall), and it's right off Highway 401 (which you will end up on if you are driving to Toronto) at Dufferin St. (Turn off when you see the Holiday Inn.)
